MEET THE DYNAMIC AND CREATIVE FORCE BEHIND WEGOLIVE!

Premiere Poetry, where poetic dreams come to life. Founded on October 5, 2018, this poetic powerhouse has been setting the stage ablaze with some of the hottest shows in the city, including the unforgettable spectacles "Hell Hath No Fury," "Summer Daze," and "Set It Off."

At the heart of this captivating venture is Robert Bob, poetically known as Scott Free, a retired military personnel who discovered his true passion for poetry while hosting open mic events on military bases in Iraq and Kuwait. Hailing from the town of Beaumont but now calling the Greater Houston, TX area home, Scott Free co-founded WEGOLive! Premiere Poetry with the vision to bridge the gap between open mic poetry and showcase poetry. With unyielding dedication, he has cultivated an outlet that guarantees premium poetry, delighting poetry lovers far and wide.

In perfect harmony with Scott Free's poetic prowess stands Courtney Lynn, a true Texan and the other half of WEGOLive! Premiere Poetry. Born and raised in the vibrant city of Houston, Courtney Lynn's poetic eloquence is complemented by her culinary artistry as a skilled chef. Together, this dynamic duo has crafted an exceptional platform for artistic expression.

Beyond their shared love for poetry, Scott Free and Courtney Lynn also revel in their extended family, blessed with five wonderful kids: James (22), Nia (21), Corey (14), Jace (11), and Za'Niyah (8). This cherished family bond serves as a driving force, inspiring them to create poetry that touches the hearts and souls of their audience.

Each month, WEGOLive! Premiere Poetry graces the stage at the Media Block (Sound Stage) in Houston, Texas, delivering enthralling performances that leave a lasting impression on all who attend. They have truly redefined the poetry scene, providing a transformative experience for both performers and spectators alike.
